

St. Augustine of Canterbury Episcopal Church
Oklahoma City, OK

St. Augustine's is seeking a Director of Religious Education to be responsible for the planning and execution of a Christian formation program for children, youth and adults at our growing and diverse parish.

We are a thriving, vibrant community full of life, love for each other and enthusiasm for community service and outreach. Our greatest prayer has been to share the Good News of Jesus with people in northwest Oklahoma City who are looking for a loving and inviting Christian community. Our prayers have been answered as we experience growth in attendance, activity and financial resources.

One of our greatest challenges is to provide consistent, relevant and high quality religious education for our current and future members.
